

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

It's about time some of these self-styled bad men were learning that Truckee is not one of the best places to ply their trades or attempt to get by with their criminal activities. In recent months local officers have offered pretty conclusive proof that even though Truckee is a border town and somewhat apart from the more sheltered sections, it is by no means an easy place to conduct unlawfulness. We have a good bunch of officers, men who are not easily bluffed.

The good judges of the Winter Sports carnival, held in Sacramento last Saturday night, are to be congratulated upon their rare judgments in selecting Anne Gregory of Truckee attired in her picturesque skating costume, to preside as queen of the huge affair. Members of the Truckee Outing Club, too, in naming Queen Anne as the local representative to the carnival, exercised unimpeachable judgment and are to be lauded for their decision. But above all, we wish to lead three rousing cheers for the queen herself. Competing with 14 other beautiful, attractively dressed girls, Queen Anne brought home the crown and with it the valuable advertising for this region. Her job was not easy, competition was very keen, but in the accomplishment she has well earned her title and the thanks of her sponsors.

If it be true, as we have heard, that the state chamber of commerce committee has recommended the immediate discontinuance of the state's border checking stations, and that the money now expended in their maintenance be turned into other channels, we feel that a grave mistake has been made or that pressure has been brought to bear. It is not generally known what valuable duties are performed by the clerks and officers of the checking and quarantine stations, but we reiterate that here in Truckee we see and hear of the many worthwhile tasks, many of which are not assigned to the men, accomplished. Police work, recovering stolen cars, apprehending criminals, seizure of contaminated or diseased produce and countless other chores too numerous to mention but at the same time valuable to the taxpayers of the state. We cannot now imagine where the money now spent on the maintenance of the stations could be put to a better use and we believe that unless the pressure is too great that a close investigation of the stations would alter that recommendation.

Any criticism of praise or condemnation which we offer through this column for individuals or organizations should be offered in person and will be welcomed first hand. We do detest dealing in second hand gossip.

MAN INJURED WHEN CAR GOES OVER BANK NEAR HERE

John Rutter, 25, 1672 Oxford street, Berkeley, suffered serious injuries Saturday night when the car he was driving struck a rock which had rolled into the highway just west of the quarantine station and rolled down the hill to the railroad tracks.

Three companions, two young women and a man, escaped with minor hurts. Rutter was taken to an Oakland hospital.

Traffic Patrolman C. E. McKeen investigated and rendered first aid.

The four people were returning to the University of California Ski hut from Galena Creek when the mishap occurred.

PLANS DELAYED IN FORMATION OF FIRE DISTRICT AT TAHOE

Plans to organize a fire district at Tahoe are at a standstill following the announcement that the Placer County board of supervisors had rescinded its action setting February 8 as the time for a hearing on the proposal.

To finance the purchase of three trucks, a tax of 30 cents was proposed in the petition submitted. The levy would have raised $6,750 but, it was decided, this sum would not be sufficient to buy the equipment and maintain the district.

Three Men, Woman Nabbed On Outskirts Of Reno

WILD RIDE IS CHECKED

Daring Youths Speed Over Truckee-Reno Road In Chase

A wild chase over the winding highway between Truckee and Reno Saturday night during which police bullets spurred the pursued, ended on the outskirts of Reno in the arrest of four young people charged with stealing an automobile from an Oakland used car lot in which they had hoped to reach Chicago.

The four are Irene Fiener, 25 of Chicago, Charles H. Williams, 19, of Indiana, Harold E. Befus, 18, of Alameda and Frank J. Martino, 23, of Oakland.

The wild ride started with police in the rear near Roseville when Patrolman Gene Walker, started in pursuit of the speeding car after it had been involved in a hit and run case. His car incapable of catching the fleeing machine, Walker wired to the checking station to apprehend the machine. Clerk William Kocher notified Patrolman C. E. McKeen and the chase was on.

Driving between 80 and 100 miles an hour, McKeen, accompanied by Frank Reed, secretary for Director Ray Ingels, overtook the car and started by it. The fleeing driver swerved his machine, side-swiping the officer's car, sending it into a ditch. Undisturbed by the near tragedy, McKeen continued the chase.

At the curve just west of Verdi, the culprits' machine turned completely around on the highway, but kept going east, Reed firing shot after shot at the back of the car.

In the meantime, checking station attendants here, telephoned the Reno police and a barricade was formed at the subway and highway just west of that city.

Seeing the police cars, the driver of the stolen machine attempted to swerve by them, but hit the curb and the car came to a crashing stop, the four youthful passengers, smiling, alighting to surrender.

The four waived extradition and were returned to Truckee and later to Nevada City where federal authorities took charge of the case.

The body of the stolen car was riddled with bullets but none of the four was struck. Williams, however, had a bullet hole through his hat.

Williams, an ex-taxi driver, was driving the car and admitted taking the machine from the parking lot.

The culprits believed they could have safely evaded arrest had not a bullet from McKeen's gun punctured a rear tire just as they attempted to pass the Reno barricade.

Pete has crossed over the great divide.

Unless you are a newcomer to Truckee, you have made the acquaintance of Pete sometime or other during the many years he lived at the Truckee Mercantile. He made a name for himself as having been responsible for the decrease in the rodent population.

Pete, the cat, went to his reward at the ripe old age of 15 and although he already has a successor lying on the counter behind the warm stove, his place has not yet been filled.

Tests Conducted By State Men To Fight Monoxide

Four Officials At Checking Station Testing Vehicles

The California Department of Motor Vehicles last week started a concentrated attack on monoxide gas, deadly foe of the motoring public.

Equipped with scientific instruments capable of detecting the gas, Dr. J. P. Russell, assisted by Fred Ingram and State Patrolmen George Smith and George Zelk, started last week at the Truckee checking station examining trucks and automobiles.

The tests are made by the intricate instruments being mounted in the drivers compartment. Each bit of gas is detected and the effect on the driver is revealed through blood testing apparatus, also of highly scientific arrangement.

Research may disclose drivers, especially those handling trucks, are unwitting victims of monoxide poison. The examiners will be here about two weeks.

OFFICER'S LIFE THREATENED AS TWO NABBED HERE

Burglary, Assault, Jailbreak Added To Car Theft Officers Said

DOLLEY WINS IN FIGHT

Two Men Probably Will Face Violation of Federal Dyer Act

Two men are behind iron bars today facing trial on four separate felony counts and Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley is thanking his stars he is still alive as the result of a series of escapades here Monday night.

The men in jail are Thomas Gordon, 34, alias Condon, a Susanville auto body painter, and Mike Hines, 42, of Sawtelle. Gordon is charged with first degree burglary, theft of an automobile, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily harm and attempted jail break. His companion is charged with the theft of a car and attempted jail break.

The story began when Dolley received a call from Bat Reardon of the Southern Pacific roundhouse, advising him two drunks were creating a disturbance near there.

Investigation revealed Hines in a new Ford coupe, later found to have been stolen in Susanville, in an intoxicated condition. He was taken into custody and lodged in jail. A search of the vicinity failed to reveal the whereabouts of Gordon, but shortly after 11 o'clock, Deputy Dolley questioned a stranger on Main street, sensing he was Hines' friend.

"We have a man in jail charged as a drunk," Dolley explained to the man, later identified as Gordon, "He wants to see his friend and I was wondering if you could be the man."

"I don't know anything about him," Gordon is quoted as replying, "but I'm a cigarette salesman and would like to take him some cigarettes."

Dolley agreed and the two started toward the jail, Dolley signalling Irwin Waters, a passerby, to come with them.

As Dolley and Gordon near the jail, with Waters bringing up the rear, Gordon suddenly reached into his coat pocket.

"What have you there," Dolley asked, "cigarettes?"

"No, you ———, a gun," Gordon snarled, placing the muzzle of a .38 calibre revolver against the officer's side.

Dolley grasped the man's wrist and after a short struggle subdued him and with Waters' aid took the gun and lodged Gordon in jail.

An investigation revealed that the office of the Truckee-Tahoe Lumber company had been looted, the gun used in the attack being part of the loot taken.

During the night, the two men in some manner improvised a wire hook which they used to fish a heavy axe, knives and other articles from an adjoining room of the bastille. They had dug a deep hole in the floor of the rock cell when they were taken from the jail for questioning the following morning.

The questioning of the pair was conducted by Traffic Officers George Smith and Charles McKeen and Dolley and they were then taken to Nevada City.

It was indicated by District Attorney Stoll that they would be turned over to federal officers for violation of the Dyer Act.

MOVIE SCOUT HERE TO INSPECT LOCAL ICE RINK FOR FILM

OUR WORKLESS WORKERS

If any conclusions whatsoever can be drawn from the great toll of noses in the Federal Unemployment Census, it must be apparent that California has been breasting the tide of unemployment remarkably well.

The findings of the special Census indicate that the total number of unemployed lies somewhere between eight and 11 millions. If the figures are correct, it means over 12 per cent of the entire population is jobless.

With 258,000 unemployed persons listing themselves as wanting work, the California percentage of jobless is 4.3 per cent, or almost one-third less than the national average.

Undoubtedly the actual number of jobless is higher than this. But whatever the exact size of the workless workers' army, it will scarcely disprove the fact that California finds itself among the ranks of the more favored states in employment.

This is both surprising and encouraging. California is affected by factors unknown to others states. The cry "California Here I Come!" has long been echoed not only by the jubilant tourist and the prosperous settler, but by a goodly share of America's disinherited as well. To these latter, the state has looked like a benevolent haven of refuge. And our old age pensions—the most liberal in America—will doubtless continue to make it a beckoning land to people elsewhere for years to come.

Yet despite these factors, California has shown itself lower in unemployment than over half the states—good testimony, we believe, to the many sided resources of the state. These have helped her dispense the jolt on an unemployment slump through many productive enterprises—even though the cry of "California, Here I Come!", voiced by jobless legions, may sometimes threaten her stride.

A Suggestion

Politically Speaking

By Jack Welter
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—(UP)—I talked for 45 minutes today with a man generally recognized as one of California's most competent hands at predicting election results.

I still had a number of years to go before greeting the light of day when he last misused on a shot of this nature.

This man told me that State Senator Gilbert L. Olson of Los Angeles will be California's next governor, barring disaster or cataclysm.

This same observer said he regards Gov. Frank F. Merriam as the smoothest politician ever to occupy the executive's chair and said he considered Olson one of the "most able men ever placed on the floor of the California senate."

Just in case the foregoing and the ensuing might sound like a Democratic press agent's eulogy, it might be advisable to note at this point that the man quoted here is a Republican of many years standing.

Among the more important factors he cited to support his belief that Gov. Merriam will not be reelected was the fact that U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson was the only governor ever reelected in California.

He referred back 35 years, to the administration of Gov. George C. Pardee, to draw a parallel which he believed is one of the factors auguring Merriam's defeat in November.

"Dilatory tactics in filling his appointive jobs beat Pardee when he sought reelection," he explained. "The same thing will weigh heavily against Merriam. (Merriam has at least 50 unfilled appointments.)

"He is one of the smoothest operators who ever sat in the governor's chair. All you have to do to convince yourself of that is to look at the men around him.

"I believe Merriam has given the state a good administration. He's a shrewd politician and he never moves without knowing exactly where he's going. But the thing he doesn't seem to realize it that while he holds up these appointments, letting scores of candidates flock in asking for a job, and considering their propositions in terms of campaign support, he frequently is doing himself more harm than good.

"For every one block of votes he gets with a delayed appointment, he loses half a dozen others swung by disgruntled candidates. And by the time he gets around to filling a job, even the successful candidate gets the impression that if the appointment can be delayed so long it doesn't amount to much."

My informant's remarks should not be misconstrued. He does not believe the campaign is going to be a walk-away for anyone. But whereas some Republican's claim Merriam is stronger than he was in 1934, this man believes that the governor will have "one hell of a fight on his hands, a fight which will turn out to be a losing one. Here's why:

"Every Democrat I've talked to, a lot of them big Democrats, say it will be Olson and Merriam in November," he said. "The primary should be easy for Olson. He has a heavy labor block nailed down and he is certain to draw a powerful vote from the relief class and the remnants of the Epic Democrats. So every new candi-

He said there is no question but that the Merriam forces want Olson to be the Democratic nominee on the theory that they can beat him in the general election with the same anti-communism, anti-radical campaign they used to halt Upton Sinclair.

"But Olson isn't Sinclair as Merriam will find," he ventured. "Olson definitely is not radical. He's liberal, but he's the best qualified man and most able man I've ever seen on the senate floor."

To back up this statement he cited Olson's record as an attorney, his

NEW ORGANIZATION FORMED AT TAHOE TO AID BUSINESS

TAHOE CITY, Jan. 13.— At a special meeting held at Tahoe Inn on January 6, 20 local residents approved and adopted a constitution and set of bylaws drawn up by Judge George Hinkle, C. W. Vernon and Mrs. A. M. Henry for the purpose of incorporating a new civic organization to be known as the Tahoe Community Center. Papers will be filed with Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

Henry F. Droste served as temporary chairman, Weller Atherton as vice president and Mrs. George Bliss secretary. The selected group of 11 who will sign papers of incorporation as required by law for all non-profit organizations included the following: Messrs Droste and Atherton, Mrs. Bliss, Mrs. W. A. Simmonds, Mrs. A. M. Henry, Mrs. H. D. Worden, Mrs. Eleanor Swanson, A. M. Anderson, Carl Bechdolt, Sr., George R. Bliss and C. W. Vernon.

At a special meeting held at the inn on Monday night these 11, in accordance with the bylaws, selected five to serve as a board of trustees until the first Monday in June at which time permanent officers will be elected. They were C. W. Vernon, Mrs. George Bliss, Marie Henry, Henry Droste and A. M. Anderson. It will be their duties to manage the financing, building and maintaining the new proposed community center which, conservatively estimated, will cost in the neighborhood of $5000.

Although anyone, resident or non-resident, may join the club, the privilege of voting for officers and board members or the holding of office is limited to members living within the Tahoe voting precinct. The purpose of the new organization is to foster more congenial cooperation among townsfolk and the promotion of new business enterprises in Tahoe City where building improvements have lagged behind other sections of the lake region in the past five years.

Henry F. Droste, George R. Bliss, Carl Bechdolt, Sr., and C. W. Vernon comprised the committee which on Tuesday last journeyed to Auburn to seek permission of the Placer county board of supervisors for the erection of the new building on the commons. With the assurance of reliable financial backing and the appointment of a board of trustees to handle the

JOHANSON LOSES FAVORITE HUSKY IN TAHOE MISHAP

TAHOE CITY, Jan. 13.— Tahoe's constable, Harry Johanson, dog musher and breeder of Alaskan huskies, today mourns the loss of his favorite dog, Maya, three and a half year old female, who has borne three litters of huskie pups, 21 in all, since her advent from Chico. She was a gift as a puppy from Father Bernard Hubbard, and her mother was the famous lead dog, Margie, who served the noted explorer so loyally during his many hazardous adventures in Alaska.

Maya was run over Friday while enjoying a few hours freedom from her kennels in the Tahoe Park with her team mate, Yukon. A car hit her on the highway near her home, breaking her back. Yukon, with untimely intelligence, dashed for home and by his queer actions and barking aroused his master's curiosity. Following the dog back up the trail he found Maya, critically injured, but trying to drag herself home.

A single shot brought to a close the life of Constable Johanson's favorite daughter of the north. She was buried next to Kanan by the lake shore. Kanan, the constable's faithful blue-eyed lead dog met death by poisoning three months ago.

Conn McGinnis of Auburn has been a visitor at Tahoe Inn for the past several days.

business, the long desired permission was granted, thus ending a battle of over 15 years.

The board of trustees, elected at Monday night's meeting, will meet and confer with Postal Inspector Austin who arrived at Tahoe from San Francisco on Tuesday. They will show him the proposed new site for the community building and other available locations, including the new building erected by Otto Darlin on Grove street. Selection of Darlin's building, which already houses completed accommodations for a post office, would eliminate delay of four or five months for the convenience of lock boxes. The mercantile is reportedly for sale with several outside concerns evidencing interest in its purchase. Inspector Austin's visit is anticipated with interest, the different factions planning to lay their ideas before him.

Tahoe Ramblings

(By SWANEE)

Interest in Tahoe's public library branch remains steadfast, a total of 236 books having been loaned out during last month. Thanks are offered Mrs. H. Hull and Mrs. William Wathen for books donated to the library during the month. The library has been temporarily transferred to the Anderson home at the rear of the Cash and Carry in town. Office hours are the same as heretofore.

Tahoe City this year will boast a President's Ball of its own on Jan. 29. Carl Bechdolt, Sr., has been appointed chairman and will stage a gala dinner dance at Tahoe Inn on the evening of the 29th to which all are cordially invited. Previously the Tahoe residents have thrown their support to Truckee's ball which will probably be with Tahoe's aid from now on.

Recent visitors on the Truckee river at the Ellis home include Mrs. Z. H. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Atkinson of Piedmont, Mr. and Mrs. William Peterson of Brooks and Alfred Loures of San Francisco. Mrs. Ellis and three daughters left on Wednesday for a visit in New York. Lee Copeland of Livermore who operated the big gas shovel at the Kaiser estate where dredging operations in the harbor have been under way for a month, left for his home on Monday.

Governor and Mrs. Richard Kirman and daughter, Claire, of Carson City, were among those enjoying Sunday dinner at Tahoe Inn.

MISS CONNERS WILL WED FORMER ST. MARY'S GRID STAR

TAHOE CITY, Jan. 13.— An engagement of considerable local interest is that of Miss Julianna Connors, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Connors of Pasadena, to Ned O'Laughlin, member of St. Mary's basketball team of 1937.

Connors is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bechdolt, Sr., of Tahoe. Connors being a sister of Mrs. Bechdolt. The young lady has many friends at Tahoe where she has often visited.

The couple will be married next Saturday morning in St. Phillip's Church in Altadena, the ceremony to be followed by a wedding breakfast at Vista del Arroyo. Mrs. Bechdolt and son, Bill and Miss Babe Harris left on Monday to attend. Mr. Bechdolt and Conn McGinnis will join the party over the week end the weather permitting.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flannery of Austria, New York, San Francisco and Reno are sojourning for the winter in the Renner house in the Bettencourt Tract. Mrs. Flannery is a commercial artist of note.

Miss Sue Hinkle left Tahoe on Sunday for the University of California at Berkeley.

Tahoe Inn will stage another big Winter Sports frolic on February 4, 5 and 6, being sponsored by the Contra Costa Hills Club which invaded Tahoe and vicinity last winter on a similar occasion 53 strong. This number is expected to be enlarged this winter providing Tahoe can muster another six or eight inches of fresh snow for the occasion.

Mrs. John Stevens of Tahoe has been receiving heartening word from New York where he has been with slate wiped clean, is visiting at the home of a sister, Mrs. John Martin, awaiting the formality of a transfer to California. Steady employment and a warm welcoming home party awaits his arrival most any day now.

Miss Effie Ginder of San Francisco is a guest at Tahoe Inn indefinitely.

Only a small group traveled to Sacramento on Saturday to witness the crowning of the winter sports queen, an honor going to our neighbor, The Truckee Outing Club this year with congratulations. Those who made the trip included Mr. and Mrs. D. Worden and daughter, Queen Helen, David Renner, Beccy Brodehl, Jimmie Easton, J. E. Pomin and Joe Pomin, all of whom wore ski togs.

Sig Ulland, Tahoe's ace performer and A jumping state champion for the past two years left on Friday to attend the Salt Lake invitational meet over the week end. Although unsanctioned by the California Ski Association as required, permission was granted Ulland to attend by a telephone message from Arnold Weber, president of the association. Ulland wired Tahoe that he placed third in the slalom and that he was going on to Chicago to attend the first F. I. S. meet ever to be held there.

James Ferguson observed a birthday on Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson and son, Jimmie, being guests at a birthday dinner at the Ferguson's Sunnyside home. Ferguson last week caught a 35 pound bob

BETTER BUY BUICK ON EASY GENERAL MOTORS TERMS

MONEY talks — so take a turn up and down Automobile Row and see what it says about Buick.

First off you discover that this sparkling stepper is the lowest-priced of all the straight-eights of its size.

Next — it lists at lower figures, even, than some sixes do, and it's within a dollar or two a week of several others.

But the story isn't told in the bare prices — it's told in the astonishing amount those modest figures cover!

In the SPECIAL, for instance, you get 122-inch wheelbase, 107 horsepower with straight-eight smoothness, valve-in-head efficiency, and the exclusive new DYNAFLEX brilliance and thrift.

You get comfort of a new kind, with Knee-Action on the front, and the scoop of the year — BuicOil TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING — on the rear.

On top of that, you get elbow-room, leg-room, head-room; smartness inside and out; and probably the lightest, sweetest, pleasantest handling wheel you ever laid hands on!

All in all, this great Buick is the car that makes little money do a lot of big talking — that's why there's such a mighty fine feeling to owning it.

Go look at the price tags, and what's behind them, and you'll spend from now on in a Buick enjoying life!

EASY WAY TO OWN A BIG CAR

Why be content with a small car when the same money buys more in a slightly used Buick?

Reconditioned 1936 and 1937 Buicks are now being offered by Buick dealers at prices of cars in the lowest price class.

MOTORISTS WARNED ON TRAFFIC DANGER IN SNOW REGIONS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—Winter sports enthusiasts were advised by E. Raymond Cato, chief of the California Highway Patrol, to observe fundamental safety laws on their trek into California's "winter wonderland."

Listed by Cato as good points to remember were:

Do not close up your care entirely. Remember monoxide gas.

Take chains along. If you don't have any, at least deflate the tires to a pressure sufficiently low to avoid skidding.

If the windshield is frosted, raise the car hood a trifle at the rear. Heat from the motor then reaches the glass directly.

Be careful where you park in the mountains. Be sure the road is one that will be open when you want to return.

If your car has mechanical brakes be sure that they do not freeze. Watch out for frozen radiators.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—(UP)—California's winter season provides its residents with unlimited opportunities for participation and enjoyment of recreational activities, Gov. Frank F. Merriam said in a statement calling attention to the winter sports season.

The winter season brings us an abundance of snow throughout the extended mountain areas of our state, the governor said. "This 'white gold' is welcomed, not only by the thousands of our citizens who find in the snow and ice sports a healthful land stimulating recreation, but also by the thousands of our agriculturists who depend upon the mountain areas for the preservation of snow as a source of water supply for the vast agricultural areas during the winter months. I urge our citizens to avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the mountain areas, witness the beauty of the scenery and participate in the various outdoor activities."

HOT SPRINGS LAUNDRY

WHILE her current beau looks on, this potential housewife demonstrates her skill in the domestic arts. Her laundry is a hot springs near Banos. The latter is a spa famous for the curative properties of its medicinal springs which are among the most potent in South America—a little village on the trail which leads into the jungles at the headwaters of the Amazon. There is a cold pool in Banos effective in the treatment of rheumatism, and a hot pool with waters which are efficacious in the curing of skin and blood disorders. The latter is almost under a beautiful three-hundred-foot waterfall.

Scattered throughout the West Coast countries of South America are scores of springs of varying temperatures and an unusual range of therapeutic properties—effective in the treatment of such human ills as rheumatism, neuralgia, blood affections, skin diseases, disorders of the digestive tract, kidneys and liver. Modern science has carefully tested the waters and they are available at various spas which provide the comforts, the up-to-date equipment and expert medical supervision demanded of modern sanitariums. These spas, approached from West Coast ports visited weekly by ships from New York, attract health seekers from all over the world.

This Week
At The State Capitol

By JOHN ABBOTT
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—(UP)—Based on Dun and Bradstreet ratings Californians rank second in the nation in ability to pay debts.

In releasing the firm's weighted index of ability to pay, compiled in various sections of the country, state finance director Arlin E. Stockburger said only New York outranks this state.

Federal bureau of internal revenue records, the nation's banking reports, and other 1937 government records were employed in the survey.

Factors constituting the aggregate index were: percentage of population making income tax returns; percentage making returns on incomes of $5000 or more; retail sales per capita; gasoline consumption per capita; the motor vehicle registration per thousand and population; estimated tax property value per capita, and savings deposits per capita.

Lowest ability to pay, the director added, was disclosed in Mississippi. Others near the bottom were Arkansas, Alabama, South Carolina and Georgia.

Governor Frank F. Merriam made political news during the week with a virtual announcement of his candidacy. The governor said he would "leave to the people in November" the question of whether he will retire at the end of his present term.

John R. Quinn, state director of Military and Veterans Affairs and past national and state commander of the American Legion, also figured in the headlines when he admitted returning a French government legion of honor citation because "it carried a implication of inferiority of service I am unwilling to admit."

Quinn objected because he was not made a commander. He said all other American Legion past commanders have been designated commanders of the French legion.

Mrs. Florence L. Turner, director of the Social Welfare department, said the state's 58 counties are participating in the federal old age, blind and needy children assistance program.

The director said a financial situation in Del Norte county, which threatened to withhold payment of federal funds to California had been satisfactorily adjusted.

H. R. Judah, Santa Clara publisher and chairman of the state highway commission, protested against proposed congressional reduction in the federal highway funds, said the move would seriously disrupt California's projected road building program.

Judah said the commission regarded the plan as the wrong kind of economy and felt that California with a considerable investment in rights-of-way, should be permitted to complete its road building program during the 1939 biennium.

The $9,000,000 appropriation for next year must be used for construction only, the chairman added, pointing out that unemployment in California and 10 other western states would total 18,000 men.

"I think this is a factor that should not be overlooked," he said.

Traffic on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge last month averaged approximately 1000 cars a day above estimates and set new holiday season record for the three-day Christmas period, according to a report of state engineer C. H. Purcell.

Purcell's figures disclosed 723,281 vehicles used the span during the month, averaging 23,332 cars a day and boosting December earnings to $303,919.60. Christmas Day 37,883 vehicles crossed the bridge.

California State Fair directors, irked at the state racing commission's choice of dates for the Del Mar racing season because the Southern California track's season thereby will conflict with the fair meeting, asked the commission to reconsider its action.

Del Mar's season is July 29 to September 5. The fair program runs from September 2 to 11.

Because the fair seldom attracts horses of the calibre that run on the larger tracks, however, nobody supposed the commission would alter the original schedule.

TAHOE SKIERS WIN FOR NEVADA U. IN INVITATION MEET

TAHOE CITY, Jan. 13.—Once more Tahoe boys ran off with the day's honors at the Galena Creek invitational college ski meet held last Saturday and Sunday by the University of Nevada at Grass Lake.

In the jumping, first, second and third places were taken respectively by Carl Bechdolt, Jr., who made a beautiful jump on the specially constructed hill, the longest jump of the meet, which won for him the most points on jumping during any one tournament, in all his career—18½ points out of a possible 20. Jack Anderson was second, and James Worden, third, all students of the University of Nevada.

Earl Edmunds, a Truckee student at the university, took first in the down mountain with Worden first in the cross country.

Ultimate results of the meet gave Nevada first, California second, and Stanford third.

Pete Vanni and Billie Bechdolt of Tahoe failed to register. A large crowd was on hand to view the two day events with fine weather. The Tahoeans attending included Carl Bechdolt, Sr., and sons, Carl and Bill, Pete Vanni, David Renner and James Worden, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson and son, Jack.
